

JUDICIAL SUMMIT ON MENTAL HEALTH

THE ROYAL SONESTA HOUSTON GALLERIA
HOUSTON, TX

OCTOBER
7-8, 2025

9 Continuing Education (incl. 1.75 ethics) hours CLE, CEU, & TCOLE

*Sessions in the Legends Ballroom and Discovery Ballroom will be live streamed

Tuesday, October 7, 2025

8:00 a.m.	Outside Legends Ballroom Breakfast Provided
8:30 – 8:45 a.m. 15 mins	Legends Ballroom Welcome From the High Courts Kristi Taylor, J.D., Executive Director, JCMH Hon. Jane Bland, Justice, The Supreme Court of Texas, JCMH Chair Hon. Jesse F. McClure, III, Judge, Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, JCMH Chair Host: Hon. John J. Specia, Jr., Jurist-in-Residence, JCMH
8:45 – 9:45 a.m. 1 hour	Criminal Justice Interactions with People with Autism Spectrum Disorder <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Anne Jackson, J.D., Assistant County Attorney, Bell County Attorney's Office, and Founding Member, Bell County Autism Intervention Team</li> <li>Tres Jackson, Autism Lived Experience Expert &amp; Autism Ambassador</li> </ul> This session offers a powerful, dual-perspective look at how individuals with autism experience the criminal justice system—told through the lens of a Bell County prosecutor and her adult son with autism. Together, they will explore how common courtroom procedures, communication styles, and legal expectations can create unintended barriers for neurodivergent individuals.
9:45 – 10:00 a.m. 15 min	Break
10:00 – 11:00 a.m. 1 hour	Sharing Their Stories: Experiences of Grief and Ambiguous Loss among Children of Incarcerated Parents <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Gregory Gomez, L.M.S.W., M.Ed., Clinical Implementation Specialist, Trauma and Grief Center at The Hackett Center for Mental Health, Meadows Mental Health Policy Institute</li> <li>Monique Joseph, Program Director, Community Engagement, Honors College, The University of Houston</li> <li>Julie Kaplow, Ph.D., A.B.P.P., Executive Vice President for Trauma and Grief Programs and Policy, Meadows Mental Health Policy Institute, and Executive Director, Trauma and Grief Center at The Hackett Center for Mental Health</li> </ul> Children with incarcerated parents often experience a profound and unacknowledged grief that can disrupt emotional development and fracture family and community systems across generations.

	This presentation brings together clinical and lived experience perspectives to illuminate the layered experiences of ambiguous loss in children and adolescents impacted by parental incarceration.
11:00 – 11:15 a.m. 15 min	Break
11:15 – 12:15 p.m. 1 hour	Burnout &amp; Boundaries - A Systemic Problem with Systemic Solutions Ethics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Jessica Chevrier, M.S., Licensed Marriage &amp; Family Therapist Associate, The Relationship Center of El Paso</li> </ul> Burnout among lawyers is reaching critical levels. This presentation, delivered by a licensed marriage and family therapist, explores burnout not only as an individual issue, but as a systemic issue that be overcome and prevented. Building on her presentation at the 2024 Summit, Jessica Chevrier will outline practical, scalable interventions that promote sustainable wellbeing, setting professional boundaries, and preventing burnout.
12:15 – 1:15 p.m. 1 hour	Lunch Provided
BREAKOUT ROOMS	Legends Ballroom Intro to Mental Health and IDD Host: Hon. Bill Boyce, Partner, Alexander Dubose &amp; Jefferson, JCMH Vice-Chair	Founders Ballroom Advanced Discussions Host: Magdalena Morales-Aina, L.P.C.-S., L.P.C.C., Director, El Paso County Community Supervision &amp; Corrections Department	Discovery Ballroom Youth-Specific Host: Hon. Cynthia Wheless, Judge, 417th District Court
1:15 – 2:00 p.m. 45 mins	How to Implement a County-wide CCP 16.22 Process <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Hon. Rodney Adams, Municipal Judge (Ret.)</li> <li>Alyssa Aldrich, M.B.A., F.A.C.H.E., Executive Director, Adapt Community Solutions, LLC</li> <li>Hon. Pamela Liston, City Attorney, City of Decatur</li> <li>Lee Pierson, J.D., Chief of the Mental Health Division, Dallas County District Attorney's Office</li> </ul> Panelists will share insights from Dallas County's multi-year effort to build a coordinated, county-wide 16.22 process, including	Successfully working with Physicians for Your CCP 46B &amp; 46C Clients <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Marshall Smith, M.D., Board Certified Forensic Psychiatrist</li> </ul> This presentation will provide attorneys with evidence-based guidance on best practices for referring clients for competency to stand trial and insanity evaluations. An experienced forensic psychiatrist will share lessons learned from real case studies, with a focus on distinguishing between psychosis due to severe mental illness and substance-induced psychosis in the context of criminal responsibility determinations. Attendees will gain practical insights to improve referral decision-making, strengthen legal strategy, and enhance collaboration with forensic	Positive Youth Diversion Programs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Hon. Angela Williams, Justice of the Peace, Williamson County Pct. 2</li> </ul> This presentation explores the transformative impact of positive youth diversion programs as effective alternatives to formal judicial processing. By redirecting individuals away from the traditional justice system, these programs provide crucial second chances that reduce recidivism and interrupt the cycle of system involvement. Attendees will gain insight into the core components of successful diversion initiatives and learn how these programs contribute to healthier trajectories for young people.

	practical strategies, lessons learned, and the value of cross-agency collaboration. Panelists will discuss the importance of magistrates and other system partners in effective use of CCP 16.22.	experts in competency evaluations.
2:00 – 2:15 p.m. 15 mins	Break
2:15 – 3:00 p.m. 45 mins	HHSC Basics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Anne McGonigle, M.A., Deputy Associate Commissioner of IDD Services and PASRR, Texas Health and Human Services Commission</li> <li>• Jennie Simpson, Ph.D., Associate Commissioner, Office of Forensic Services and Coordination, Texas Health and Human Services Commission</li> <li>• Reilly Webb, M.P.A., Associate Commissioner, Mental Health Programs, Texas Health and Human Services Commission</li> </ul> In this session, senior leaders from the Texas Health and Human Services Commission will each provide an overview of the mental health, IDD, and forensic services and supports offered by their respective divisions: Community Services, Health and Specialty Care Systems, and Behavioral Health Services.	Innovative Approaches to High-Utilizer Intervention: Co-Responder Models and Assisted Outpatient Treatment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Jason Miller, D.O., Crisis Response Medical Director, CMO of Athra Systems, Center for Health Care Services</li> </ul> This presentation will examine the effectiveness of multidisciplinary co-responder teams, comprising law enforcement officers, paramedics, and mental health professionals, in addressing the needs of individuals who frequently utilize 911 and emergency detention services. With a focus on those concurrently enrolled in Assisted Outpatient Treatment (AOT) programs, the session will present recent data demonstrating improved treatment engagement, reduced emergency service utilization, and notable cost savings—even among individuals experiencing homelessness.	Adolescent Brain Development and How it Impacts Fitness &amp; Restoration Practices <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Juliana Caro, Psy.D., Clinical Director, F.I.R.E. Igniting Lives Psychology</li> <li>• Gimel Rogers, Psy.D., A.B.P.P., C.E.O. and Owner, F.I.R.E. Igniting Lives Psychology</li> </ul> This session explores how the unique neurological development of adolescents influences their competency in legal settings and informs effective restoration practices. Presenters Dr. Juliana Caro and Dr. Gimel Rogers will discuss current research, practical considerations, and strategies for addressing these developmental factors in juvenile justice contexts.
3:00 – 3:15 p.m. 15 mins	Break

3:15 – 4:00 p.m. 45 mins	Data and Information Sharing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Domingo Corona, M.A., Director of Pretrial Services, Arizona Superior Court in Pima County</li> </ul> This session explores how courts and pretrial services can leverage effective data collection and interagency information sharing to improve decision-making, enhance public safety, and support individuals with behavioral health needs. Domingo Corona will share practical models, lessons learned, and strategies for overcoming common barriers.	Trauma Informed Policing <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Becky Haas, C.E.O., Becky Haas Consulting</li> </ul> National police trainer Becky Haas will offer law enforcement professionals practical, evidence-based strategies rooted in trauma-informed policing. Drawing from her nationally recognized course, Haas will explain how understanding the root causes of trauma and the related brain science can transform responses to non-compliant or difficult behaviors—replacing frustration with empathy and improving outcomes on scene.	Children Without Placement, Mental Health, &amp; Criminal Justice Crossover Cases <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Luanne Southern, M.S.W., Chief Strategist for Behavioral Health, Texas Department of Family and Protective Services</li> <li>Matt Smith, M.A., L.P.C.-S., Director of Statewide Youth Services Continuum, Texas Juvenile Justice Department</li> <li>Sierra Fischer, M.P.A., Director of Analytics for Change and Enhancement, Texas Department of Family and Protective Services</li> </ul> This session examines the complex challenges faced by youth in the child welfare system who lack stable placements and present with significant mental health needs, often intersecting with the juvenile justice and adult criminal justice systems. Luanne Southern, Matt Smith, and Sierra Fischer will highlight systemic factors, current initiatives, and collaborative approaches to improve outcomes for these youth.
4:00 – 4:15 p.m. 15 mins	Break
4:15 – 5:00 p.m. 45 mins	JBCR 101: How the Partnership between the LMHA &amp; Judicial System Impacts Competency Waitlists <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Krystin Holmes, Ph.D., L.P.C., L.M.F.T., N.C.C., Program Manager, Jail</li> </ul>	From Chaos to Control: A Practical Framework for Achieving Your Goals <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Maj. Brent A. Carr, Jr., Instructor, Mission Command Training Program, United</li> </ul>	Legal Education Attainment Program (LEAP): An Innovative Alternative to Inpatient Juvenile Competency Restoration <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Uche Chibueze, Psy.D., A.B.P.P., Assistant Dir.</li> </ul>

	Based Competency Restoration Program and Competency Restoration Assessment Unit, The Harris Center <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Jonathan Lemuel, Director of Forensic Services, Bluebonnet Trails Community Services</li> </ul> Panelists from two different LMHAs will provide an overview of Jail-Based Competency Restoration (JBCR) programs and highlight how strong collaboration between mental health providers and the courts is helping to reduce state hospital waitlists, improve restoration timelines, and ensure timely access to care. Through real-world examples and data-driven outcomes, attendees will gain a deeper understanding of how coordinated efforts between LMHAs and the judicial system are shaping more efficient and effective responses for individuals found incompetent to stand trial.	States Army, Fort Leavenworth, KS Whether launching a new initiative or evaluating an existing one, effective program design and assessment are essential to achieving meaningful outcomes. This presentation will explore the most current evidence-based principles and practices for developing, managing, and reviewing programs within behavioral health, justice, or related systems. Topics will include key startup considerations, identifying what to measure and why, setting clear objectives and long-term goals, and optimizing communication and information flow.	of Health Services, Harris County Juvenile Probation Department <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Florencia Iturri, Ph.D., Specialty Court Clinician, Harris Co. Juvenile Probation Department</li> <li>Toni Walker, Ph.D., Staff Psychologist/ LEAP Director, The Harris Center</li> </ul> This session highlights LEAP, a groundbreaking community-based program that provides legal education and competency restoration services to youth without the need for inpatient placement. Presenters will share the program's design, implementation, and demonstrated impact on restoring competency while supporting the developmental and mental health needs of juveniles.
5:00 – 6:00 p.m. 1 hour	Networking Hour

JUDICIAL SUMMIT ON MENTAL HEALTH

THE ROYAL SONESTA HOUSTON GALLERIA
HOUSTON, TX

OCTOBER
7-8, 2025

9 Continuing Education (incl. 1.75 ethics) hours CLE, CEU, & TCOLE

*Sessions in the Legends Ballroom and Discovery Ballroom will be live streamed

Wednesday, October 8, 2025

7:30 – 8:30 a.m.	Discovery Ballroom Host: Sgt. Shawn Edwards, President, Texas CIT Association Early Morning Law Enforcement Coffee &amp; Mental Health Discussion <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Michael Mata, Regional Director of South Texas, Texas Law Enforcement Peer Network (TLEPN)</li> </ul> The Texas Law Enforcement Peer Network (TLEPN) is a statewide initiative designed to support the mental health and well-being of peace officers through peer-to-peer connections. Created by officers for officers, the network provides a confidential, supportive space where law enforcement professionals can share experiences, access resources, and receive guidance from peers who understand the unique challenges of the profession. This session will highlight the development and implementation of TLEPN, explore its role in reducing stigma around mental health, and demonstrate how peer support can improve resilience and retention within the force. A facilitated discussion will follow.
8:00 a.m.	Outside Legends Ballroom Breakfast Provided
8:30 – 9:20 a.m. 45 mins	Legends Ballroom Welcome Hon. Rebeca Huddle, Justice, The Supreme Court of Texas, JCMH Deputy Liaison Hon. Gina Parker, Judge, Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, JCMH Deputy Liaison Host: Hon. Brent Carr, Jurist-in-Residence, JCMH Legislative Updates and Budget Allocations for Mental Health Services and Diversion Projects <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Prof. Brian D. Shannon, J.D., Horn Distinguished Professor, Texas Tech University School of Law</li> <li>• Reilly Webb, M.P.A, Associate Commissioner, Mental Health Programs, Texas Health and Human Services Commission</li> </ul> The 89th Texas Legislature enacted significant reforms aimed at strengthening mental health infrastructure and services for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD). This presentation will offer a comprehensive overview of the most impactful statutory changes, emphasizing systemic implications for those working at the intersection of mental health and justice.
9:20 – 9:30 a.m. 10 min	Break

BREAKOUT ROOMS	Legends Ballroom  Benefits of Family &amp; Peers Host: Wayne Young, M.B.A, L.P.C, F.A.C.H.E., CEO, The Harris Center for Mental Health and IDD	Founders Ballroom  Alternative Approaches Host: Beth Lawson, M.B.A., CEO, StarCare Specialty Health System	Discovery Ballroom  Specialty Courts Host: Hon. Brent Carr, Jurist-in-Residence, JCMH
9:30 – 10:15 a.m. 45 mins	The Evolving Role of Family Care Partners <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Jerri Clark, Family Resource and Advocacy Manager, Treatment Advocacy Center</li> </ul> This presentation will blend a mother's personal experience with her son's serious mental illness (SMI) and professional insights gained from working with families nationwide to highlight the essential role of family care partners. Attendees will gain practical tools and strategies for engaging these unpaid yet invaluable allies in more effective, collaborative ways. By recognizing and integrating the voices of family caregivers, courts and mental health systems can improve outcomes and restore dignity to both individuals and their support networks.	High Utilizers and Complex Intervention Strategies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Thomas "Jay" Wooten, J.D., Chief Public Defender, Galveston County Misdemeanor Mental Health Public Defender's Office</li> </ul> This session will explore one of the most persistent and complex challenges in mental health and criminal justice systems: how to respond to individuals who are unhoused, uncooperative, and experiencing anosognosia, yet do not meet legal criteria for incompetency to stand trial or civil commitment. Galveston County's Chief Public Defender will discuss practical considerations, legal limitations, and innovative strategies for engagement.	Rethinking the Roles of the Treatment Court Team: Defense-Aligned Support within a Mental Health Court <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Katy Jo Muncie, J.D., Director of Defense Services and Outreach, Capital Area Private Defender Service</li> <li>Theo Scrivner, R.S.P.S, M.H.P.S., Mental Health Court Peer Support Specialist, Capital Area Private Defender Service</li> <li>Diana Hernandez, Mental Health Court Case Manager, Capital Area Private Defender Service</li> </ul> Typically, Treatment Court Team members report directly to, and work for, the court. In Travis County, Mental Health Court case managers and peer support staff are integrated in the Managed Assigned Counsel Program, making them part of the defense team. This rethinking of roles fosters trust, strengthens therapeutic alliances, and improves treatment engagement and outcomes of the court participants. Presented by part of the Travis County Mental Health Court Team, this session will highlight how aligning some of the treatment court team's supportive roles with the defense team enhances participant retention, treatment outcomes, and overall success of both the Mental Health

			Court and the court participants, while maintaining the transparency and information-sharing that are fundamental to the treatment court model.
10:15 – 10:30 a.m. 15 min	Break
10:30 – 11:15 a.m. 45 mins	Healing Justice: Enhancing Health Outcomes with Peer Support from Pre-Entry to Re-Entry <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Chelsea Biggerstaff, Program Director of Peer Services, LifeWorks Austin</li> <li>David Johnson, Executive Director, The HEAL US Project</li> </ul> Peer support specialists play a vital role in transforming outcomes for youth and adults impacted by the criminal and civil legal systems. This presentation will examine how peer support—rooted in lived experience and evidence-based practices—can positively influence every stage of the justice continuum, from diversion and early intervention to re-entry and long-term recovery. Through real-world examples, the session will explore how peer support is effectively integrated in settings such as schools, jails, courts, hospitals, and community re-entry programs.	Medication-Assisted Treatment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Juliana Caro, Psy.D., Clinical Director, F.I.R.E. Igniting Lives Psychology</li> <li>Gimel Rogers, Psy.D., A.B.P.P., C.E.O. and Owner, F.I.R.E. Igniting Lives Psychology</li> </ul> This session provides an overview of medication-assisted treatment (MAT) as an evidence-based approach to supporting individuals with substance use disorders. Dr. Juliana Caro and Dr. Gimel Rogers will discuss the role of MAT in treatment plans, address common misconceptions, and highlight best practices for integrating MAT within behavioral health and justice settings.	Helping Treatment Courts Meet Best Practice Standards and Build Recovery Capital <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Hon. Devon Anderson, President &amp; C.E.O., Justice Forward</li> </ul> Treatment courts carry a heavy responsibility—supporting individuals through complex legal, behavioral health, and recovery challenges. In the Coastal Bend of Texas, Justice Forward, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, is helping to meet that challenge by filling critical service gaps for both adult and juvenile participants. This presentation will explore how Justice Forward partners with treatment court teams to uphold best practices while directly supporting participants and graduates through funding for housing, transportation, education, vocational training, trauma-informed care, and criminal record relief.
11:15 – 11:30 a.m. 15 mins	Break
11:30 – 12:15 p.m. 45 mins	The Work of Peers and Family Partners at the Intersection of Behavioral Health and Justice Involvement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Doug Smith, M.S.S.W., A.C.C., Managing</li> </ul>	Developing Thoughts, Concepts, and Procedures for Chemical Dependency Warrants Ethics	End of the Road: What Happens After the Program Ends Ethics <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Hon. Raquel “Rocky” Jones, Presiding Judge,</li> </ul>

	Partner, D-Degree Coaching &amp; Training <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Sommer Alexander, R.S.P.S., Texas Harm Reduction Alliance</li> <li>• Melissa Porter, R.S.P.S., Houston Recovery Center</li> <li>• Angie Tyler, C.F.P., Integral Care</li> </ul> Family partners bring lived experience and unique insights that can transform behavioral health and justice system responses. In this session, presenters will share how their work fosters trust, bridges service gaps, and promotes recovery for individuals and families navigating both systems.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Hon. Oscar Kazen, Judge, Probate Court No. 1, Bexar County</li> </ul> This session examines the ethical and practical considerations in creating and implementing chemical dependency warrant processes as set out in the Health and Safety Code. Judge Oscar Kazen will share insights on balancing individual rights, public safety, and treatment needs while navigating the legal and procedural complexities of these cases.	203rd Judicial District Court, Dallas County Successful treatment aftercare in Texas, particularly for individuals involved in the criminal justice system, requires more than program completion; it demands a coordinated, culturally responsive continuum of care. This presentation will explore best practices for supporting individuals after they graduate from specialty court programs, with a focus on community supervision, reentry, and sustained recovery.
--	---	---	--

2025 Continuing Education Form & Certificate

All attendees must complete our online Continuing Education Form to receive credit and/or a certificate of attendance for self-reporting purposes.

For more information and the CE form, visit the Summit website or scan the QR Code.

2025 MCLE & State Bar College & Texas Board of Legal Specialization Accreditation Information

Course No. 174292589

CLE: Approved for 9.00 Continuing Education Hours.

Ethics: 1.75 Hours Ethics Credit for Judges and Lawyers.

TBLS Approved: 9.00 Texas Board of Legal Specialization hours in Civil Appellate Law, Civil Trial Law, Criminal Appellate, Criminal Law, & Juvenile Law.

---

---

Social Workers, Law Enforcement, & Licensed Professional Counselors

Earn up to 9.00 possible CEU, TCOLE, and LPC training hours. Attendees are responsible for self-reporting these credits with a provided certificate of attendance and detailed agenda.

All Other Continuing Education Credits

We can provide a certificate of attendance to self-report any continuing education not offered above. Please email judicialsummitonmentalhealth@iemshows.com for a copy of your certificate of attendance.

---

---

Post-Event Recordings

We are offering on-demand recordings of each session and will email the link to these recordings a few weeks after the Summit concludes. The Summit on-demand recordings will offer 10.50 additional education hours, including .75 additional ethics hours, for a total of 19.50 credits with 2.5 ethics hours. If you are not able to attend the full Summit live, or if you would like to earn additional CEU credits, you can watch the recorded sessions after the event and complete an additional continuing education form for credit.

Post Event Recordings CLE Available: Approved for 19.50 hours and 2.50 Ethics.

Post Event Recordings TBLS Approved: 19.50 Texas Board of Legal Specialization hours in Civil Appellate Law, Civil Trial Law, Criminal Appellate, Criminal Law, & Juvenile Law.

---

---